VISION FOR RECONCILIATION

Our vision is to embrace diversity and for all children to learn and appreciate Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander histories and cultures at a local level through authentic play based experiences. Creating a society that respects diversity and celebrates relationships and connectedness links directly to our school philosophy.

We will show respect to the Wadjuk Noongar People, their Lands, their cultures and traditions. We will work together as staff to respectfully build our cultural knowledge of Noongar people and share this appropriately with our school community to enrich our future generations. Our Educators will regularly engage in professional development to obtain deeper understanding and increased confidence for that knowledge to guide curriculum development.

At Hensman Street Elementary we acknowledge reconciliation to be on a continuum and recognise the importance for all children to value and learn about the cultures of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples.

It is our aim that through these practices Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander families will feel welcome at our Kindy, recognising that they will be respected, culturally safe and that their voices will be valued and heard. It is our vision that all the children and families who engage in our programs will come to know the long-standing and continuing histories of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples and their stories, languages and wisdom as we celebrate diverse cultures together.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

We give ourselves a moment to take a breath and connect ourselves to the country of the Wadjuk Noongar Nation.

The home of our School.

We acknowledge and respect the traditional storytellers and scientists of our lands, skies and water.

We thank the Wadjuk Noongar Elders past and present, for caring for Mother Earth for thousands of years.

We promise to be brave and walk together into tomorrow, taking responsibility as we create a shared story.

Mother Earth will guide and look after us.
